AMONG THE FRATERNITIES

MASONIC.

LODGES. April 20-Stansbury, No. 24, 3 p.m., re-ligious services at the Masonic and Eastern Star Home. April 21-Potomac, No. 5, E. A. Benjamin B. French, No. 15 Anacostia, No. 21, M. M., by ofnial Lodge, No. 14. Pentalpha, No. 23, F. C. Mount Pleasant, No. 33, by T. V. Powderly, April 22 - Federal, No. 1, not bulletined Acacia, No. 18, M. M. Takoma, No. 29, F. C.

April 23-Harmony, No. 17, M. M. School of Instruction. April 24 The New Jerusalem, No. 9, E. A. George C. Whiting, No. 22, busi-

Temple, No. 32, M. M. April 25-St. Johns, No. 11, F. C. Hope, No. 20, not bulletined April 26 La Fayette, No. 19, special, ROYAL ARCH CHAPTERS

April 23 School of Instruction. April 24 Washington, No. 2, R. A. April 25 Eureka, No. 4, mark. KNIGHTS TEMPLAR COMMANDERIES. April 21-Orient, No. 5, grand visitation. April 22-De Molay Mounted, No. 4, grand April 23-Washington, No. 1. grand visita-

April 22 Mount Horeb, No. 7, R. A. Potomac, No. 8, business.

ROYAL AND SELECT MASTERS. April 21 - Washington Council, No. 1, de-April 22-Robert de Bruce Council, Knights EASTERN STAR CHAPTERS.

April 21 -Ruth, No. 1. April 22-Electa, No. 2; Bethlehem, No. 7. April 23-Naomi, No. 3; Brookland, No. 11. April 24-William F. Hunt, No. 16. April 25-Takoma, No. 12; Cathedral, No. 14; Friendship, No. 17.

Because of the rain the religious serv nder the auspices of Stansbury Lodge, afternoon. A special event of tomorrow pose of presenting the M. M. degree betansbury Lodge, No. 24, announces reern Star Home this afternoon at 3 chaplain, Rev. Charles S. Cole, will offi- joyed. clate with a quartet from his church. Automobiles will take visitors to and from the cars. Ninth street cars going north marked "Forest Glen," "District Rittenhouse street, will meet automobiles for the home, between 2 and 3 o'clock. Everybody is welcome.

Worshipful Master Stirling Kerr, jr. announces the M. M. degree in Temple Lodge, No. 32, for Thursday evening. Potentate James L. Gibbs of Almas

Temple announces the flight of a cere-nonial caravan into "The Garden of Allah" on the 30th of this month, the ast for some months to come. He adures the nobles to prepare for the event, which is in celebration of "Yunas Ibn Saad El Din." in memory of Alferganee. mystic galaxy of unspeakable words is ransmitted in his latest circular to the aithful who only are supposed to underoming session of the Imperial Council at Dallas, Tex., May 11 to 15, for which the Washington caravan will start May at 4:10 p.m., on the "Imperial Special," bearing Imperial Potentate William J. Cunningham and representatives from Cyprus, Kismet, Pyramid and Boumi emples. The party will be away eleven lays, returning May 19, about noon Sage advice is also given the novices for the next flight of the local temple, who are specially cautioned not to make friends with the elephant or the camel when the goat is around. Green and white are announced as the popular colors for the Thursday evening. Rev. Donald Mac-Leod will lecture before George C. Whiting Lodge, No. 22, on "Damaged Goods." a play of peculiar interest now being presented in the large cities of the country.

Washington Council, No. 1. Royal and Select Masters, through Thrice Illustrious Master Frank Ivey Wood, are reminded of the next stated assembly of the counil tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. The usual social hour will be spent after the High Priest Jacob W. Collins an nounces the R. A. degree in Mount Horeb Royal Arch Chapter, No. 7, at 7:30 o'clock, when also a hearty welcome will be given those who have long strayed series of visitations will occur, when and hopes for the speedy recovery of his den Charles D. Shackelford in the cast.

last communication voted unanimously to accept the splendid offer of the Park Kenyon streets northwest to suit the the order are invited to be present. lodge's plans for a new home. Ground was broken last Monday and the building is expected to be ready for occupancy corps of gran mander Underwood had prepared a treat in special motion pictures instead of the Commander Underwood with a handsome members of both branches. past commander's jewel, and Past Commander Sebring presented Commander Gibson with a beautiful watch chain and attended meeting Wednesday evening. combination Masonic charm. In making several visitors from other jurisdictions his address he said it was a pleasure to present the gift, as it was from Dr. Gibson's best friend, his mother. May 2 Columbia will work the order of the red cross on the largest class put ferred and the arrangements for the sothrough for some time. There will be fifteen to eighteen in this class, and fol-

The F. C. degree will be presented Master and Grand Representative W. W. under the guidance of Junior Warden Ernest W. Porter Tuesday evening next in Takoma Lodge, No. 29. A special communication will be held next month, when the M. M. degree will Millan presented Past Grand Prosperi be presented. It is expected several offi- and his wife $25 in gold. Mr. Prosperi lowing it will be a red cross banquet.

cers of the Grand Lodge will be present on has been a member of Harmony Lodge, that occasion. A number of past masters No. 9, for many years. of Takema Lodge will participate in the Past Masters S. S. Symons and William E. Dyre were guests of East Gate Lodge, No. 34, last Wednesday evening, on the occasion of the presentation of the M. M. degree for the first time since the new lodge was instituted.

The sacred cantata, "The Holy City," sung in Parish Hall last Tuesday evening for the benefit of the charity fund of Takoma Lodge, was a pronounced success and a considerable sum was realized. The affair was under the direction of James W. Dyre. The committee on arrangements was composed of Past Master Hervey S. Knight, chairman; Past Master William E. Dyre and Charles H. Spencer.

Columbia Commandery's new officers Sir Frank E. Gibson, eminent com mander: Sir Seaton W. Trunnell, generalissimo; Sir Louis H. Meyers, captain general; Sir Benjamin F. Larcombe, jr., senior warden; Sir Charles E. Foster, junior warden; R. E. Sir Walter H. Klopfer, treasurer; E. Sir Charles E. Baldwin, recorder; Sir James H. McIntosh, prelate; E. Sir Charles W. Hancock, trustee to 1916, and Sir Albert S. Riddle, armorer and member board governors.

Ascension day, which is always a day of special observance in Knights Templar circles, falls this year on May 1.

Eastern Star Notes.

The 1910 Matrons and Patrons' Assoclation has decided to make a departure from the customary reunion for this quarter and instead of entertaining its members as usual they will be asked the evening of April 30 to proceed in a body to the Masonic and Eastern Star Home and give the members of the home a chance to have a unique and enjoyable evening. The executive committee has charge of the arrangements with Miss Day, Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Hamill looking after the refreshments, and Messrs. Rowen, Fillius and Poynton the Naomi Chapter, No. 3, will have no de gree work Wednesday evening, but instead the entertainment committee, Mrs. the Masonic and Eastern Star H. B. Strait, will have an "old ladies" Home were postponed until 3 o'clock this tea party," with a menu of tea, jam homemade jellies, cakes and other good things to eat. The entertainment is proevening will be the visit of the officers vided for the members of the chapter and and degree team of Washington Centennial all Eastern Star people who desire to Lodge, No. 14, to Anacostia for the pur- come, but a special request has been row evening. The active interest of its made that those who do come will dress members was reflected in the large deleappropriately for the occasion. The theafore Anacostia Lodge, No. 21. Still an- ter benefit given for the chapter last be the proposed lecture on Thursday is reported to have been exceptionally successful.

The members of Martha Chapter, No. various lodges will take up the matter of Powderly, a chief of the immigration 4, are looking forward with great anticiservice. La Fayette Lodge, No. 19, will pation to the minstrel show, which is to attendance seriously with their memberhold a special next Saturday evening for be given under the auspices of the chap-the E. A. degree. Orient Commandery, ter at Odd Fellows' Hall, Thursday purpose of making this year a banner grand visitation tomorrow evening in its Arthur Middleton and H. A. Graham of Webster Lodge, No. 7, will be officially street and Pennsylvania ave- Burnt Cork Club fame, assisted by Al- visited by the Grand Chancellor and his bert E. Lang, Mrs. Samuel Gusack and a associate Grand Lodge officers Tuesday chorus of twenty young ladies, will fur-evening, at their castle hall in Pythian mandery, No. 4, will follow Tuesday even- nish the show. If A. Shackelford's or- Temple. This being the home lodge of ing, and Washington Commandery, No. 1, chestra will provide the music and a Grand Lecturer John B. Dickman, spe-Wednesday evening, both at Masonic dance will follow. Martha Chapter ex- cial efforts are being made to furnish an tends to all the members of the order entertainment both interesting and profitand their friends an invitation to be able. Several prominent speakers will be

After the transaction of business at the be represented. This lodge has completed ligious services at the Masonic and East- last meeting the officers of 1910 under plans for an excursion to Chesapeake the direction of Flora Campbell, pre- Beach June 24. o'clock. He has urged every member sented a comedy, entitled "The Sweet who can conveniently do so to come. The Family," which was thoroughly en-and visitors Esther Chapter, No. 5, Thursday evening conferred the degrees upon Line" or "Takoma Park," which stop at one candidate and transacted the usual routine business. In addition to the many visitors from sister chapters there was present a large delegation of New England visitors who seemed to thoroughly enjoy themselves. Past Matron Cecilia Tuesday evening, announced that he had Atchison rendered a gratifying report of presented his lodge with a picture of the theater party held April 15, at which Past Supreme Chancellor Edward Dunn the grand matron and grand patron were of Franklin Ledge, No. -2, who is the guests of honor. Worthy Matron Maude oldest living continuous member of the E. B. Wright announced the death of order in the world, and that it has been Bennett A. Allen, past patron of Esther placed in the archives of the lodge and Chapter and past grand patron of this jurisdiction, eulogizing his many traits, the chapter members meanwhile standing with bowed heads. Selections upon a victrola secured by Mrs. Lulu McIntosh from Percy S. Foster afforded a novel and enjoyable entertainment. Refreshments in charge of Mrs. Minnie Rauterberg were served in the banquet hall.

ODD FELLOWS. LODGES.

April 21-Beacon, No. 15, degree. Union, No. 11; Covenant, No. 13, and Langdon, No. 26, business. April 22-Washington, No. 6; Golden Rule, No. 21, and Amity, No. 27, April 23—Eastern, No. 7; Harmony, No. 9, and Federal City, No. 20, de-gree. Friendship, No. 12, business. April 24—Columbia, No. 10, degree, Ex-celsior, No. 17, and Salem, No. April 25—Central, No. 1, degree. Metropolis, No. 16, and Phoenix, No. 28, business.

REBEKAH LODGES. April 21-Ruth, No. 2, grand visitation. Naomi, No. 1, business.

April 22-Fred D. Stuart, No. 7, social

April 25-Dorcas, No. 4, degree. PATRIARCHS MILITANT.

Grand Master E. D. Thompson, accom-Worshipful Master Charles S. Shreve of panied by his grand officers, will visit his all but two were represented by large Lebanon Lodge, No. 7, announces the home Rebekah Lodge, Ruth, No. 2, in Odd delegations. Past Grand Chancellors Bau-M. M. degree for the communication of Fellows' Hall, 7th street northwest. This the lodge May 2, followed by refresh- is also the home lodge of Deputy Grand ments. At the last meeting the E. A. Master Frank E. Rapp, and it is report- both companies of the military departed that extra arrangements are being ment, under the command of Col. T. E. made both to give a hearty welcome and Landon. Mount Pleasant Lodge, No. 33, at its provide an interesting program of enter-Savings Bank to construct the upper be Grand Representative W. W. Millan. great ovation when he entered the hall. rations for the occasion were furnished. story of its new building at 14th and All members of the Rebekah branch of in the fall. The rooms will be suitably Lodge, No. 13, an official visit Monday. adapted to both lodge and chapter work The attendance of members and those and the main lodgeroom will be 23x62 from sister lodges was large, besides sevfeet in size. Members of Mount Pleas- eral visitors from other jurisdictions. The ant Lodge are quite enthusiastic over the report of the grand secretary and grand treasurer showed the lodge to be improv-Columbia Commandery, No. 2, Knights merically, and holding its own nupectally commented upon by the grand chancellor. Templar, had its annual grand visitation made by Grand Warden William J. Rich, and installation Friday night. Past Com- after which refreshments were served.

old style visitation, and the sir knights death of Past Grand Herman Kahlert, endeavor to persuade them to again affiliseemed to enjoy the evening as they one of the oldest members of Harmony ate with the lodge. A committee was also Lodge, No. 9, and Magenenu Encamp- appointed to arrange for the reception of Past Commander Baldwin, on behalf of ment, No. 4. Mr. Kahlert, although he the Grand Lodge officers, on the occasion Illinois Legislature Gets Base Ball the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Denver Club had reached his seventy-fifth year, was a of their official visitation April 28. Columbia Commandery, presented regular attendant at both lodge and en-Eminent Commander Frank E. Gibson campment, and always took active part with a beautiful basket of flowers. Past in the work of both. His loss, the grand will have charge of the euchre to be Grand Commander Klopfer presented Past secretary states, will be felt by the given by Rathbone Temple, No.

> Harmony Lodge, No. 9, held a largely being present. The second degree was conferred and an application for membership was received. This Wednesday evening the third degree will be concial open meeting set for Wednesday evening, April 30, will be completed. Tuesday evening, April 15, a large committee from the lodge with Past Grand Milian as leader paid Past Grand J. F. Prosperi a fraternal visit, the special o casion being the 50th anniversary of his marriage. On behalf of the lodge Mr.

ton, past grand of Beacon Lodge, No. 15, and past chief patriarch of Fred D. Stuart Encampment, No. 7, and Miss Laura W. Lanson, at the United Brethren Church. The grand secretary and members of his lodge and encamp-ment have extended well wishes to the happy couple.

Martha Washington Rebekah Lodge, No. 3, at its meeting Wednesday evening received an application for membership and the Rebekah degree was confrred by the new degree staff under the di-rectorship of Past Noble Grand Mrs. Olga N. Rogers. It is reported the lodge contemplates moving to its new home in Odd Fellows' Hall, 7th street northwest, n May. Its coming to the hall will make four Rebekah lodges that meet there.

The session of Columbia Lodge, No. 10, Thursday night, was particularly interesting to the members present, in that it marked the reappearance at lodge meet ings of its degree director, J. Edward Fowler, who because of the serious illness of his eldest son, covering a period of four months, was unable to take his usual active part in the lodge affairs. His fellow members rejoiced with him that his son has been restored to health, and that he can again take an active interest in degree work. The first degree was conferred on one candidate. There are two candidates due for the second degree next Thursday night. The lodge also elected a brother to membership on a dismissal certificate.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

LODGES. April 21—Equal, No. 17, rank of page;
Amaranth, No. 28, business;
Century, No. 30, rehearsal.

April 22—Webster, No. 7, grand visitation; Excelsior, No. 14, business; Germania, No. 15, business; Capital, No. 24, business; Myrtle, No. 25, business.

April 23—Mount Vernon, No. 5, business;
Hermione, No. 12, business;
Union, No. 22, rehearsal; Columbia, No. 26, business.

April 24—Harmony, No. 21, rehearsal. April 24—Harmony, No. 21, rehearsal. April 25—Syracusians, No. 10, business; Rathbone-Superior, No. 29, PYTHIAN SISTERS.

April 21-Past Chiefs Association, busi-April 23 Friendship Temple, No. 9, busi-April 25-Rathbone Temple, No. 8, euchre MILITARY DEPARTMENT. April 21—J. T. Coldwell Company, No. 7, special assembly. April 23—Washington Company, No. 1,

Equal Lodge, No. 17, the home of Grand Chancellor Sroufe, which has been steadily adding to its membership for several months past, will confer the rank on several candidates at its meeting tomorgation from that lodge at the visitation of Myrtle Lodge, No. 25, Tuesday evening, which was the subject of special comment. It is said the officers of the present and the military department will Representatives Stringer and Fitz Henry of Illinois are two ardent Pythians who have agreed to address the membership of this domain in the near future. Both had promised to be present at the visitation to Myrtle Lodge Tuesday evening, and deliver addresses, but were unable to be present.

April 24-J. T. Coldwell Company, No. 7,

Representative Russell of Missouri, who addressed the gathering at Myrtle Lodge s cherished as one of its most valuable Past Grand Chancellor Claude Woodward, who has been confined to his tack of erysipelas, is able to be out.

Friendship Temple, No. 9, Pythian Sisers, has extended its gratitude to its friends who contributed to the success the entertainment and dance at the office of imperial azim. Pythian Temple last week.

The publicity committee of the Grand Lodge of this domain announces it is endeavoring to cover the field of news as extensively as its opportunities will permit, and "will esteem it a favor if each lodge will delegate one of its members to give special attention to this feature and supply each week such items as S. M. Pearson, chairman, of Syracusians Lodge, No. 10; F. H. Melick of Myrtle Lodge, No. 25, or W. B. Hardy of Amaranth Lodge, No. 28, committee."

The first visitation of the year to Myrtle Lodge, No. 25, 316 Pennsylvania avenue southeast, Tuesday evening, it is said, marked the awakening of a new era in Pythian interest and enthusiasm. All the Grand Lodge officers were present with the exception of Grand Outer Guard Richard Sebastian, who was excused because his wife was seriously ill. Tomorrow night the last of the spring Regrets were expressed at his absence

> Of the eighteen lodges in this domain. man, Carter, Bynum, Day, Gasson, Kahlert, Yost and Haley were present, as was also a large representation from

The castle hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Past Supreme Chancellor Edward Dunn received a A. C. Moran and A. L. Ames. The deco-Enthusiastic addresses were delivered by by George C. Shaffer, a member of the eleven public playgrounds and the col-Grand Master E. D. Thompson and his corps of grand officers paid Covenant Lodge, No. 13, an official visit Monday Stearman and to the grand chancellor by sion of the entertainment dancing fol-Past Grand Chancellor Meakin.

The presence of fifteen representatives of lodges from other domains was es-

Calanthe Lodge, No. 11, at its meeting Monday evening, appointed a committee to Grand Secretary Clapp announces the visit former members of the lodge and Mrs. Julia Delay and Mrs. Ella Carter Pythian Sisters, Friday evening at Pythian Temple.

Mrs: Mary E. Mitchell of Rathbone Temple, No. 8, Pythian Sisters, will entertain the Past Chiefs Association. Pythian Sisters of the District, at her residence, 732 11th street southeast, tonorrow evening. The officers of the association are Mrs. Estelle Kahlert, president; Mrs. Elsie Vandervort, vice president; Mrs. Mary E. Mitchell, secretary; Mrs. Carrie Davis, assistant secretary; Mrs. Ida B. Crown, ant treasurer.

Maj. Thomas A. Bynum, commanding the 1st Battalion, 1st Regiment, Military Department, District of Columbia, has received and transmitted to the two companies under his command a fraternal nvitation from the Pennsylvania Brigade Gen. William Booth that the Salvation

Sackson Bros. Biggest Furniture Values in Washington!

We handle only Furniture that we can recommend—quality Furniture of the latest design—and we sell it at the lowest prices in this city—because of our big buying in carload lots. We are always glad to have you make comparisons—we know you will buy here.

Our New Method Credit Plan MEANS LOWEST CASH PRICES WITH ALL THE CONVENIENCES OF CREDIT

REFRIGERATORS $6.85 Up

Why they are the best. All charcoal sheathing. Mineral wool filling. Insuring less ice consumption. Ad covers entire top. Gives more room for ice.
The Porceloid-lined styles guaranteed not to chip off-perfectly sanitary—no odors. Has all the features of the high-

st priced refrigerators and at HALF THE PRICE

For Elegantly Carved Genuine Quartered Oak China Closet. Value, $40. Greatest line of China

For Handsome, Large,

Roomy Rattan-hooded Baby

Coaches. Big variety white, natural, French, gray and Go-Carts at $3.85 up.

riding.

Actual $5 value.

EXTRA SPECIAL.

LACQUER Brass Beds

Real Value, $30.00. Hundreds of other styles, in

MATTING RUGS, 19C

For this Massive Solid Mahogany Dresser which you cannot duplicate anywhere in this city at $50. This is only one of the hundreds of styles in Dressers and Chiffoniers we are showing. All are reduced to make room for summer goods. All Other Bedroom, Parlor and

Dining Room Furniture Reduced GOOD SIZE MATTING. Shirt Waist Box

> Other Shirt Waist Boxes at proportionately low Cedar Chests at $6.75 up.

oft.x12 ft. Wool Fiber Rugs.

o ft.x12 ft. Imported Grass Rugs, Wall of $8.10

GCKSON Bros Anc. Sinc Big Store 915 to 925 Seventh Street. 49c Strong Lawn

cellor, who is also the commander in chief of the military department.

69c

Maple-frame Porch

Rockers, with woven rattan seats. Actual value $1.25.

Thomas H. Hineline, imperial prince of he imperial palace, Dramatic Order Knights of Khorassan, announces the death of Imperial Adool J. A. Solomons and the advancement to that office of L. R. Snowden, who was imperial ikfir. Imperial Azim H. M. Quin is advanced to imperial ikfir and Imperial Trustee Gus Meese is appointed to fill the vacancy in military department, in his latest orders, makes the following announcement: "The order generally will celebrate its fiftieth anniversary February 19, 1914. It would be gratifying indeed to impress the Supreme Lodge with our keen appreciation of its generosity by reporting a membership of 35,000. We have now a very will be of interest to the membership at pleasing and attractive uniform, and the large." It adds: "This is expected to be striking feature of it is found in its being distinctively and exclusively Pythian. nappening. News items can be left at largest percentage of gain in 1913 a silk Grand Lodge headquarters, or handed to company banner, with appropriate inscriptions, or a national flag as desired. Let us make the 1913 slogan 35,000."

> Mount Vernon Lodge, No. 5, celebrated its forty-seventh anniversary in the auditorium of Pythian Temple Friday even-The hall was tastefully decorated ing. The hall was tastefully decorated with flags. Pythian colors, palms and flowers. The audience taxed the capacity of the hall and manifested its appreciation of the excellent program presented. Enthusiastic and congratulatory adiresses were delivered by Representaives J. L. Burnett of Alabama and J. . M. Adair of Indiana.

> A short historical sketch portraying he early history of the lodge from its institution to the present time was read Past Supreme Representative John Kline, sr. Music for the occasion was furnished by the Nordica Mandolin and Guitar Club. Others participating in the program were Miss Mabel Galliher, Percy C. Bowen, Edgar T. Hart, Mrs. Laura Ackenbaugh, W. S. Whitman and Miss Franc Galliher.

M. Kline, Lee H. Harris, L. H. Bergman, lowed.

Barbarossa Lodge, No. 133, of Philadel-

IS IT BRIBERY? YES? NO?

Passes as Bill Is Pending. CHICAGO, April 19.-Every member of the Illinois legislature was sent today a season pass to the games of the Chicago National base ball club here. A bill is now pending in the Illinois senate providing that the state may take action to close a ball park or other mittee. amusement enterprise at which there is not a seat for every ticket holder. The measure was introduced by Senator Beall, who claimed last Sunday that a coupon he held for a seat at the Cnicago Nationals' ball park was not honored. The bill has passed two readings in the reasurer, and Mrs. Ella Carter, assist- senate and, it was said today, had a very good chance of passing a third.

Booth's Dream Near Realization.

BOSTON, April 19 .- A preliminary step in the fulfillment of a wish of the late Takema Lodge will participate in the work, which will occupy the entire evenwork, which will occupy the entire evenwork work which will occupy the entire evenwork which will occupy the entire evenin the south was taken today when Commander Eva Booth assigned Adjt. James ment of the congress of clubs to be held work which will occupy the entire evenwork which will occupy the entire evenwork which will occupy the entire evenin the fremtwest. Mrs. E. Ide Muller, to join in its annual encampment at Sea army extend its activities to the negroes and army extend its activities to the negroes and

The Potomac Literary Club met Tuesday. Frank M. Hoadley, president, presided and James G. McFadden, secretary, read the minutes of the previous meetaddress by Judge Edward P. Seeds, upon a rising vote of thanks. Mrs. Florence H. Bacon, chairman of the program compitt, who sang: "Call Me Back," and for an encore, "The Child's Prayer." She was accompanied on the piano by by the hostess during the social hour. Mrs. Grace D. Jackson. S. A. Terry and Mrs. Rosa V. Groff were appointed an auditing committee to inspect the accounts and books of the treasurer. Re-

The executive committee of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of the District met Wednesday morning in its building, 522 6th street. Mrs. Jennie E. Mrs: Theresa A. Williams gave a report of the last meeting. Flowers were or-Shelton, who were reported ill. A donation was voted to the clean city committee. Dr. Corinne McCarthy, superintendent of Red Letter days, announced the meeting which took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock under her department, when the subject of suffrage was presented by persons representing the nine suffrage states. Mrs. F. M. Bradley, literature superintendent, outlined plans to enlist the children who frequent the ony at the Boys' National Training School in a crusade against the smok-

Admiral George Dewey Naval Camp, Murdock, to Past Grand Chancellor Mea-kin by Grand Vice Chancellor Mark

| Mark | Club | At the constitution of the federation | Club | At the constitution | Club | Cl kin by Grand Vice Chancellor Mark selections rendered by the At the conclu- manoney presiding, was visited monday cards were hand-painted in the colors District, John F. Cassidy, who inspected and insignia of the clubs represented the books and accounts of the adjutant The floral decorations were in the federa-Syracusians Lodge, No. 10, was visited Friday evening by Mr. Fleischman of Barbarossa Lodge, No. 133, of Philadel
The books and accounts of the adjutant and decorations were in the federation colors, yellow and purple, developed in jonquils and hyacinths. Mrs. John H. Stokes assisted, and Mrs. J. Edson Briggs poured tea. Over the tea cups read from Mgr. W. T. Russell and Ad- the following program of topics was miral Dewey regretting their inability to given: "A Year With Browning," Mrs. be present at the banquet to be given Stokes: "Great Books and Their shortly to the retiring members of Con- Authors," Mrs. E. Ide Muller;

The Collegiate Club held its semi-annual election recently at the clubhouse, when the following officers were chosen for the ensuing term: B. W. Lesk, North Dakota, president; L. Weinberger, New York, vice president; R. Finkelstein, New York, secretary; G. G. Cohen, Indiana, treasurer; S. Handelsman, New York, keeper of seal; F. M. Pelzman and E. M. Schwarz, both of this city, members of the council: M. Hirsch, New York: Joseph Stein, this city, members of the admission com-evening was honored by a visit from the department president and staff, as follows: Mrs. Entrikin, department president: Mrs. Washburn, senior vice department president; Mrs. Raymond, junior vice department president; Mrs. Crowell, chaplain; Mrs. Oldroyd, councilor; Mrs. Shedd, chairman executive board: Mrs. Thatcher, chairman executive staff; Mrs. Myers, inspector; Mrs. Newton, patriotic instructor; Mrs. Morgan, executive board. The Excelsior Literary Club was en-tertained Tuesday by Mrs. L. Warner, 9th street northwest. Mrs. E. Ide Muller, Dickens" was in charge of Mrs. Addie W Foster. Mrs. Foster told of Dickens' life, | Kinley circles, Ladies of the G. A. R., environments and literary methods and the comrades of the G. A. R., the Sons gave a review of his works. Sketches of and Daughters of Veterans and the Womfamous characters from Dickens were an's Relief Corps to attend. given in response to roll call, and Mrs. Ragan spoke of her personal recollection of Dickens and his readings. Miss Ethel Noble Johnson sang "The Little Irish Girl," by Herman Lohr, and "An Irish the hostess. Mrs. Kent, a member of the club, who has recently returned from means of extending the knowledge of the held Friday at the residence of Mrs. J. F. Engle, the usual Browning study of the club was continued. Mrs. Joseph Harrison conducted the reading and discussion of "The Statue and the Bust." other Browning poems was outlined to be devoted to the preparation of papers dered sent to Mr. Willey and to Charles and supplemental reading. A full at-Thompson, secretary-marked this as one of the most successful meetings of the year. The guests were Miss Frances and Mrs. J. Edson Briggs. After the regular business of the meeting the club spent a social hour with the hostess. Mrs. E. A. Pitcher. the first president of the club, presided at the tea table.

At the meeting of the Philo-Classics

Mrs. J. Finney Engle, state chairman of literature, D. C. F. W. C., entertained the members of the literature committee Drama." Mrs. Augustus Knight; erary Eras," Mrs. Walter Smith; Literary Center-Our Club House." Mrs.

Briggs; "Our Country," Miss Abbott:
"The Bible as Literature," Mrs. Engle and "The National Council," by Mrs. Andrews. The ladies invited to meet Mrs. Andrews were Mrs. John H. Stokes. Mrs. Walter Smith, Mrs. E. Ide Muller, Mrs. J. Edson Briggs, Mrs. Charles Burrows, Mrs. Philander Claxton, Mrs. Ellis Logan, Mrs. Augustus Knight and Miss Anna Abbott. The Admiral George Dewey Nava Auxiliary, No. 3, U. S. W. V., met Mon day, with the president in the chair

Burnside W. R. C., No. 4, Wednesday The attendance was the largest for many months, a number of new members being initiated. Mustering services were held, the past department president of the District A. U. S. W. V., Miss Tillie Mae Roth, being mustering officer. In answer to the urgent appeal for help from the president general for members of the organization and their families who suffered losses in the recent floods, the auxiliary has forward ed a check to Mrs. Bessie T. O'Brien national chief of staff, at Columbus Ohio. During the social hour the members were entertained with vocal solos by Mrs. Cecelia Fentress and

Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Sanborn, in the Iowa. The resignation and accepted, and Miss Laura Bryson chosen as her successor. Piano selections were rendered by Miss Sanborn, following which there was a discussion on "Whether the District of Columbia should be given the right of suffrage," participated in by Mr. Kent, Mr. Tull, Capt. Hart, Dr. McKee and others.

U. S. Grant Circle, No. 1, Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, will celebrate the twenty-first birthday of the order at Grand Army Hall Tuesday evening. Miss Rose M. Sefton, president of the circle, has invited Lincoln and Mc-guage Society met April 13 at the home of B. H. Lamore, Woodside, Md. In the business session consideration was given international auxiliary language, Ido. that country. Refreshments were served among the people of this vicinity, and of students. The president, Mr. Hilworth, read copies of some correspondence between himself and a well known Esperantist. The society also listened to a paper on "Lightships," translated into Ido from English. A pleasant surprise was the reciting of some verses in the new language by Alberta Lamore, who is only five years old. Refreshments were served.

CREAM. MILK

TYPHOID, Etc.

Many epidemics of typhoid have been traced to raw milk. (Kober.)

In the typhoid epidemic of Cassel in 1909 (over 500 cases within 10 days), only those who drank raw milk con-

In hospitals where a change was made from raw to properly pasteurized milk typhoid conditions immediately improved and the mortality rate decreased. (Edsail.)

Typhoid is less frequent in countries there little raw milk is used. (Ber-

It has been found that among patrons of dairies supplying properly pasteurized milk and cream there occur but very few cases of typhoid. (Rose-

Disease germs rise with or cling to the cream, which contains at least twelve times as many bacteria per vol-ume as the whole milk from which it

In Japan, where little cows' milk is Milk trusts and others have spread milk and cream; it is rarely safe

the reports that pasteurizing was harmful. Able sanitarians have often disproved this. Children and persons in a rundown condition should not drink Properly pasteurizing means heating to 140 degrees Fahrenheit for twenty minutes. Home pasteurizing is just as efficient. Commercial pasteurization is

MORAL:

Either buy only properly pasteurized milk and cream or home-pasteurize it by bringing it to near boiling, then cool and keep cold and covered until

Society for Prevention of Sickness

E. BERLINER, Secretary, scarlet fever is practically un-was separated. (Schroeder.)

known. (Hall.)

unreliable.

tracted the disease. (Heinemann.)

AT SUFFRAGE MEETING

While Taking Walk the President Pauses to Hear Woman Speaker.

President Wilson walked directly into the suffragists' camp yesterday. While Mrs. William Kent, wife of Representative Kent of California, and The Washington International Lan- Miss Lucy Burns, vice chairman of the congressional committee of the National American Woman Suffrage Assoaccompanied by Harold Warner, son of to the following points: The selection of ciation, were holding an open-air meeting outside Memorial Continental Hall, in an effort to win D. A. R. members to their cause, yesterday afternoon the President passed on an afternoon walk. Miss Burns was speaking from an automobile to a large group of hearers for a moment. One of the energetic suffragists hurried to his side and ofsmiled, murmured his thanks, accepted the handbill and, wishing the women "good luck," continued his walk. His resence was noticed by only a few of the women present.

"Morality Play" as Argument.

Announcement was made at suffrage headquarters last night of an elaborate "morality play," containing arguments for woman suffrage, which will be presented at the Columbia Theater the afternoons of May 19 and 20. The play was written by Mrs. Christian Hemmick, and will be staged under her direction. Proceeds from the performance will be devoted to financing the campaign for a constitutional amendment giving nation-wide "votes for women." The performance is to be unique in its elaborateness and in its presentation of the theme, according to the announcement. It is to be known as "A Morality Play" and is to set forth the underlying arguments for woman suffrage in a poetic Professionals to Take Part.

The principal parts will be taken by professional artists, but between forty and fifty prominent young society girls will be in the cast. Mrs. Hemmick has planned to make one of the principal features a "pageant of women of achievement," in which the great women of history will be represented. As a preliminary to Mrs. Hemmick's play A. Washington Pezet, son of the Peruvian minister to the United States. will present a short sketch entitled "How the Vote Was Won.

Cross Hearing Continued. Owing to the illness of Assistant Corporation Counsel Marshall, chairman of the police trial board, the case of inspector Francis E. Cross of the police department, charged with violating rules of the police manual growing out of a handbook investigation nearly two years ago, was not resumed yesterday. Mr. Marshall was injured in an automobile accident.

Fight Memorial Day Sports. SALEM, Mass., April 19 .- The United Spanish War Veterans of Massachusetts today adopted resolutions calling upon Congress and the state legislature for laws forbidding any sports on the morning of Memorial day.